

TOWN HALL MEETING

A VOICE FOR CRIME VICTIMS

EASTERN SHORE

www.goccp.maryland.gov

Purpose: To provide crime victims, their families and citizens a platform to voice opinions, suggestions and concerns about crime victimization to state and local government representatives. An overview and analysis of Eastern Shore crime will be presented prior to the panel presentations.

Participants will each have 5 minutes to speak and address the panel of local and state representatives that work in the criminal justice system or at an administrative level of services. The panel members will respond to the speaker. Eastern Shore citizens will be invited to sign up in advance or at the time of the event. Written and oral presentations are welcome.

Directions:

Heading south on Salisbury Blvd., (Rt. 13) the University is approximately 2 miles south from P.R.M.C. (Peninsula Regional Medical Center) and from Route 50 Business District exit to Rt. 13. Continuing south on Rt. 13, you will pass thru approximately 4 or 5 traffic lights bypassing Salisbury University at the corner of College Ave. and Rt. 13. Proceeding thru the traffic light on College Ave. continue thru Bateman St. traffic light to Dogwood Dr. light; turn right on Dogwood Dr. then turn right into the 2nd parking lot entrance (Lot D). This is the Guerrieri University Center's parking lot. There are stairs to the 2nd floor thru the handicap door entrance (far left). Once inside the building there is an elevator on your right half way thru the building. If you take the elevator to the 2nd floor, the Nanticoke Room will be on your immediate left. If taking the stairs, once you have reached the 2nd floor, go thru the double open doors and the Nanticoke Room is on the right.

If coming from the south heading north on Rt. 13, proceed thru town of Fruitland; turn left at Dogwood Drive approximately 5 traffic lights.
